

Ownership of media outlets should be regulated so corporate 1 interests do not influence media reports. We must protect the 1 freedom of the press by stopping monopolies of the media. Large 1 corporations and their ties to profits and their own special 1 interests bias the accuracy and full reporting to the public.